

Where is the Divisional Court?

The Divisional Court, a branch of the Superior Court of Justice, sits in eight regional centres throughout the province. They are listed in the chart below, which also indicates some of the locations served by each regional centre.

Central East Newmarket Serving locations: Newmarket, Barrie, Bracebridge, Cobourg, Lindsay, Peterborough, Whitby	Central South Hamilton Serving locations: Hamilton, Brantford, Cayuga, Kitchener, St. Catharines, Simcoe	Central West Brampton Serving locations: Brampton, Guelph, Milton, Orangeville, Owen Sound, Walkerton	East Region Ottawa Serving locations: Ottawa, Belleville, Picton, Brockville, Cornwall, Perth, Kingston, L'Orignal, Napanee, Pembroke
North East Sudbury Serving locations: Sudbury, Cochrane, Gore Bay, Haileybury, North Bay, Parry Sound, Sault Ste. Marie, Timmins	North West Thunder Bay Serving locations: Thunder Bay, Fort Frances, Kenora	South West London Serving locations: London, Chatham, Goderich, St. Thomas, Sarnia, Stratford, Windsor, Woodstock	Toronto Toronto